DEANERY SERVICE JANUARY 29

For our next Deanery Service on the 29th of January, as an act of solidarity with our persecuted Christian brothers and sisters and as a witness to the deepening friendship between our two faith communities, we will join the Syrian Orthodox congregation for their Sunday morning service. Their Archbishop will be there to welcome us. The service begins at 10:30am at St Ephrem's Syrian Orthodox Church at 150 13e Avenue South (Just off King East) in Sherbrooke. As the Syrian community provided the splendid food for our last gathering it is now our turn. Donations will be taken for the luncheon the DMC will provide. The Archdeacon will provide everyone with a booklet that explains the service and the Syrian Christian Tradition (First Visit to an Orthodox Church: 12 Things I Wish I'd Known). These should arrive by the beginning of January. For those wishing to look over the actual service beforehand the Archdeacon will provide you with an English translation. It is not customary for non-Orthodox to receive Communion when attending these services. Donations this Sunday will be for the Syrian Refugee Project and given directly to St Ephrem's. Please come with us to explore a different expression of the faith of the church, expand your horizons, hear their glorious music, give thanks for our mutual work for refugees, and to show our solidarity and affection.

PLEASE SEND ANY ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR NEXT SUNDAY'S BULLETIN TO THE SECRETARY BY WEDNESDAY NOON AT:
