

Share the Spirit; Spread the Word October 11, 2017

Friday, October 13, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Eaton Corner Museum, 374 Route 253, Cookshire-Eaton. Autumn is a season for exploring. And what a glorious time of year to rediscover the Eastern Townships' multilayered history and culture. Please join the Quebec Anglophone Heritage Network (QAHN) and Townshippers' Association for an afternoon of discovery and exchange. Admission is free of charge. Historical societies and museums across our region strive each day to preserve, celebrate and teach us about the places where we live. Come learn about their activities and services, and find out how you can get involved as a heritage volunteer in your community. For more information, call Dwane Wilkin, QAHN projects director, at: (819) 564-9595.

Saturday, October 14, 10:00

St Luke's Church, Magog - A special meeting of the Vestry to determine the future of the Parish will be held in the Parish hall. All members of the Vestry are expected to be present at this important meeting.

Meeting Jesus at the Border

On October 14th at 2 pm (location TBA), the Diocese of Quebec, in partnership with the Diocese of Montreal, will be leading a pilgrimage to the US-Canada border near Hemmingford, where Bishop Mary and Bishop Bruce will be presiding over a service of Holy Eucharist with Dr. Mary Jo Leddy, CM, preaching. We will pray for those crossing our border seeking refuge, the civil servants and NGO workers who are welcoming them, as well as our neighbours who have responded to these crossing with hatred and fear. In preparation for this pilgrimage, Violet Konrad will be facilitating a theological discussion group at St. George's Lennoxville on Thursday, October 12 at 1:30 p.m. to meet and discuss Dr. Mary Jo Leddy's book The Other Face of God: Where Strangers Call us Home book. Copies of the book available with at St George's Church in Lennoxville for a cost of $27.00 each. Please confirm your attendance with Violet by phone (819-566-8391) or email vkonrad@bell.net. Konrad (time and location TBA). All are welcome to participate, whether or not they will be able to attend the pilgrimage on October 14th, or have finished the book.
