

Share the Spirit; Spread the Word

Wednesday, March 15, 2017

Save the bees and butterflies

The milkweed sale has been very successful, and we have sold more than three times the number of plants that we had originally estimated. Thank you to everyone who participated. We appreciate your support.

Thursday evening during Lent, 5:30 – 7:30

St George's Church Hall, Lennoxville - Lenten Book Group. During the season of Lent, all are invited to a time of food and fellowship as we discuss Being Disciples, recently written by Rowan Williams, former Archbishop of Canterbury. This short book discusses the essentials of Christian life, from faith, hope, and love to life in the wider society to living in the Spirit. We will meet at the same time each Thursday until April 6th.

Thursday, March 16, 11:00 – 1:00

St George's Church Hall, Lennoxville – The Third Thursday Soup Lunch this month will celebrate St Patrick's Day. Your choice of four delicious homemade soups, Irish soda bread and two desserts, tea, coffee or juice. By donation.

Friday, March 17, 5:30 pm

Lennoxville United Church – Messy Church. It is a meal followed by a dramatization followed by crafts, followed by a short service. It is addressed to children and their parents. For more information, contact Linda Buchanan revlindabuchanan@gmail.com

Saturday, April 1, 9:00 am

Plymouth-Trinity United Church - The Angel choir for children grade 2 and up will be starting on Saturday April 1. Interested people contact lesliemartinyoung@gmail.com

Holy Saturday, April 15, 8:00 pm

There will be a concert of Penitent Tudor Era Music on Holy Saturday, April 15th at Plymouth-Trinity United Church. Singers will be Jean-Yves St-Pierre, Amélie Rheault, Maude Frechette and Leslie Young.
