

Share the Spirit; Spread the Word December 11, 2018

Please Note: We would like to include the times of the Christmas services for all of the churches in the deanery in the list posted on the St Francis Deanery website. <https://deaneryofstfrancis.com/calendar/> Could those churches which are not members of the Regional Ministry please send me the time of your Carol and Christmas services. Thank you to those who sent me the information. We need the details from The Church of the Advent in Sherbrooke, St George's Church in Georgeville and All Saints Church in Hereford. The churches which are members of the St Francis Regional Ministry are already included.

Mental Health Estrie (MHE) has launched its annual campaign: Walk in my Shoes: Hugs for the Homeless Campaign.. HUGS stand for Hats, Underwear, Gloves (and Mittens), and Socks and scarves. Every year MHE campaigns to receive new clothing items and toiletries for the homeless shelter in Sherbrooke (Accueil Poirier). All donations can be dropped off in a red bin at the Mental Health Estrie office at 257 Queen, Suite 900 in the Lennoxville Borough of Sherbrooke. For more info regarding this year's needs call: 819 565- 3777 or e-mail mhe.info@bellnet.ca

St John's Church, Waterville

From now until Christmas the youth of St. John's Church will be collecting pop bottles and cans. If you have any and want to help, please contact the Rev. Ruth Charleau on Facebook or call 819-437-631 and arrangements will be made to pick them up by one of the youths. They will decide where the money will go and keep you all posted.
